The MUN Club fosters global thinking and diplomacy by engaging students in debates, mock sessions, and discussions on international issues, helping them grow into confident communicators and critical thinkers.

Meanwhile, the Cultural and Heritage Club plays a key role in preserving and promoting India's rich traditions by organizing folk art activities, cultural celebrations, and storytelling events. Each Club In charge outlined their vision and invited students to join, emphasizing how these platforms help develop creativity, leadership, and a well-rounded personality. The session ended with the National Anthem, filling the air with pride and unity.

Stretching Towards a Healthier Future: Yoga Activity

Tagore Public School hosted a vibrant and enriching International Yoga activity on 13th May 2025. Students from Grades Nursery to 12 participated enthusiastically in a comprehensive yoga session, embracing the theme "Yoga for Self and Society."

This theme underscores the dual benefits of yoga: enhancing personal well-being and fostering a more positive and harmonious society.

These asanas promote flexibility, strength, and balance. The session incorporated Pranayama practices such as Bhramari (Bee Breath), Anulom Vilom (Alternate Nostril Breathing), and Padmasana (Lotus Pose), which are known to reduce stress and enhance mental clarity.

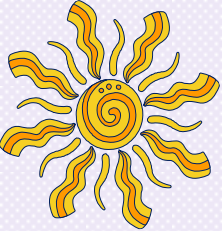

The yoga session aimed to harmonize the body, mind, and spirit, reflecting yoga's core principles of mindfulness, self-discipline, and inner peace. Beyond physical benefits, the event aimed to cultivate values like inner peace, mindfulness, compassion, and social harmony — echoing yoga's true essence. Students reflected on how personal well-being contributes to a healthier society, embodying the spirit of this year's theme.

Protecting with knowledge:

Workshop on Good Touch and Bad Touch

Tagore Public School recently organized an important and sensitive workshop on 'Good Touch and Bad Touch' aimed at promoting child safety and awareness among students. The initiative was part of the school's ongoing commitment to the holistic well-being of its students. The workshop was conducted in two parts to cater appropriately to different age groups.

For Grades 4 to 8, a PowerPoint Presentation was shown in classrooms, designed to educate students on personal safety, body boundaries, and the difference between appropriate and inappropriate touch. The presentation was age-appropriate and included interactive questions, scenarios, and guidance on how to respond in uncomfortable situations. Students were also informed about whom to approach for help.

For Pre-Primary to Grade III, a video presentation was shown by the class teachers. The video used simple language, visual s, and storytelling to help young learners understand the concept in a non-threatening and child-friendly manner. Teachers facilitated the session with gentle discussions to ensure the children understood the key message of staying safe and speaking up.

The workshop aimed to empower students with knowledge and confidence to protect themselves and to encourage open communication between children and trusted adults.

This initiative marked a significant step toward building a safer and more aware school environment.

A Clay Moulding Exploration of Teeth – Grade IV

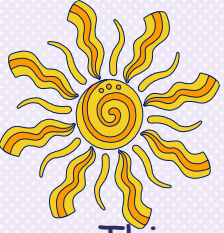

As a part of their Science Curriculum, the students of Grade IV at Tagore Public School took part in a fun and educational Clay Tooth-Making Activity. Using colourful clay and A4-size sheets, they created models of the four main types of human teeth: incisors, canines, premolars, and molars. This hands-on activity helped students understand the different shapes and functions of each type of tooth, and how they work together to help us eat and speak properly.

In addition to moulding teeth, the students learned about tooth decay and its causes. Through engaging discussions and simple visual demonstrations, they discovered how cavities form, the role of bacteria, and how sugary foods can harm our teeth. The activity emphasized the importance of daily brushing, flossing, and making healthy food choices to maintain good oral hygiene.

This creative science lesson not only strengthened students' understanding of the topic but also made learning enjoyable and memorable. The activity encouraged curiosity, reinforced key health concepts, and helped build a strong foundation for lifelong dental care habits.

Creative Model Making: Sense Organs with Clay

On May 7th, Grade 1 students enthusiastically engaged in an enrichment activity where they crafted models of the five sense organs using colourful clay. This hands-on experience not only deepened their understanding of the senses and their functions but also significantly enhanced their fine motor skills. Manipulating clay—through actions like squeezing, rolling, and shaping—strengthens hand muscles and improves hand-eye coordination, foundational skills for tasks such as writing, buttoning clothes and tying shoelaces.

Moreover, such sensory-rich activities stimulate cognitive development by encouraging exploration and creativity, allowing children to make meaningful connections with the world around them. Creating models encourages students to use their imagination and creativity.

This creative expression is vital for problem-solving and innovative thinking in later stages of education

Incorporating this type of interactive learning into the curriculum not only makes education more engaging but also fosters essential life skills, laying a robust foundation for future academic and personal growth. Incorporating such creative activities into the curriculum not only makes learning enjoyable but also supports holistic development. By blending education with hands-on experiences, students are more likely to retain information and develop a lifelong love for learning.

Fun Day Celebration -

A Joyful Start to Summer Holidays!

On the last day before the summer vacation, Tagore Public School came alive with excitement and cheer as students from Nursery to Grade VII enjoyed a special Fun Day filled with joy, laughter, and learning!

The day began with an energetic dance session conducted by our lively Venus Sir, who led the students in different slots across the grades. His fun moves and enthusiastic music had everyone tapping their feet and smiling from ear to ear!

During the lunch break, students got to enjoy their favorite food together in their classrooms, creating a lovely picnic-like atmosphere filled with chatter, laughter, and the delicious aroma of home-cooked meals.

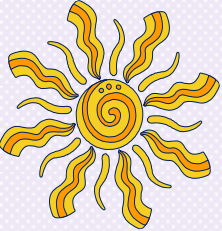

To make the day even more memorable, our dedicated teachers organized engaging classroom activities such as quizzes, games, and storytelling sessions, keeping the fun alive while encouraging teamwork and creativity.

The Fun Day was a perfect send-off into the summer holidays, leaving students with joyful memories and big smiles on their faces. We wish all our students a safe, happy, and relaxing summer vacation!
