

NEWSLETTER NOVEMBER 2025

Dear Parents, Students, and Well-Wishers,

As we step into the joyful month of December, I look back with immense pride and gratitude on the whirlwind that was November 2025. The entire school community poured its heart and soul into preparing for our Annual Day celebrations, and the result was nothing short of spectacular—a truly huge success that will remain etched in our memories for years to come.

The dazzling performances, the vibrant displays, the seamless execution, and above all, the overwhelming enthusiasm of our children made the event a resounding triumph. The countless words of appreciation you shared—through messages, calls, and in-person conversations—touched us deeply and reaffirmed that we are all part of one big school family working toward the same goal: the holistic growth of every child.

A heartfelt thank you to each one of you.

With the curtains drawn on the grand festivities, December brings a welcome shift in rhythm. It is now time to channel our energy back to academics. The final stretch of the term is upon us—examinations, assessments, project submissions, and revision schedules will take centre stage. This is the season for focused effort, disciplined study habits, and giving our very best in the classroom.

Let us together make this December a month of academic excellence, quiet determination, and joyful learning.

Warm regards,
Madhu Chauhan
Principal

Joy, Laughter & Learning: Children's Day Celebration 2025

Tagore Public School celebrated Children's Day on 14th November with immense excitement and cheerful energy. The day began with a warm welcome as students entered the campus, greeted by colourful placards, instantly setting a joyful tone for the celebration.

Various fun-filled activities were organised on the school grounds, turning the entire campus into a vibrant fest arena. Teachers set up the Yum-Stop Junction, offering a variety of delicious treats like footlongs, sandwiches, popcorn, and cupcakes, adding a festive flavour to the celebration. A special attraction of the event was the Open Mic session, where students confidently came forward to sing, recite, and share their talents. Their performances added charm and laughter to the atmosphere, reflecting the spirit of freedom and joy. The Lemon Race, Tattoo Station, Blow Painting Corner, and Wish Tree brought out the excitement of the young learners, giving them space to play, create, and express themselves freely. The little ones also enjoyed a delightful Puppet Theatre and Movie Time, which kept them engaged with stories, characters, and lots of giggles. Teachers captured these precious moments through photos and videos, preserving the lovely memories of the day.

After the activities, Principal Ma'am addressed the students, appreciating their enthusiasm and wishing all children a very Happy Children's Day. Her encouraging words highlighted the importance of childhood, joy, and learning through fun experiences.

The day beautifully reflected what Children's Day truly stands for — joy, imagination, creativity, and the celebration of childhood. It was a perfect blend of fun, learning, and festive cheer, leaving every student with a smile and a memory to cherish.

Children's Day Celebration at BPTP - Park Life

Children at BPTP Park Life had a wonderful, joy-filled morning on Children's Day as Tagore Public School proudly organised a special celebration for the society. The event brought together students, families, and residents for a lively blend of fun activities, interactive games, creative workshops, and cheerful performances. With the aim of spreading happiness beyond the school campus, Tagore Public School created a vibrant, festive atmosphere where every child felt valued, celebrated, and deeply appreciated. It was a beautiful extension of the school's commitment to community engagement, ensuring that the spirit of Children's Day reached every young heart in BPTP Park Life.

Divine Reflections: Celebrating Guru Nanak Jayanti with Grace & Gratitude

The students of Grade XI conducted the morning assembly on the occasion of Guru Nanak Jayanti with great devotion and enthusiasm. The assembly began with a special speech on the significance of Guru Nanak Jayanti, highlighting the teachings and life of Guru Nanak Dev Ji, the first Sikh Guru and the founder of Sikhism. The program continued with the Thought of the Day, reflecting Guru Nanak Dev Ji's teachings of kindness and humility.

This was followed by news headlines sharing key national and international updates. The poem presentation beautifully expressed spiritual devotion and gratitude towards the great Guru.

The assembly concluded with a melodious recitation of Guru Dev's Vaani, which created a serene and spiritual atmosphere in the school premises.

Annual Day Celebration 2025 - JALSA Celebration of Love, Leela & Life of Lord Krishna

29 November 2025

Tagore Public School transformed into a celestial Vrindavan on 29 November 2025 as it presented its much-awaited Annual Function, JALSA - Celebration of Love, Leela & Life of Lord Krishna.

Far beyond a mere cultural programme, JALSA emerged as a soul-stirring odyssey that wove devotion, artistry, discipline, and life lessons into an unforgettable tapestry of performances. The entire campus reverberated with the enchanting aura of Lord Krishna, leaving every attendee spiritually enriched and emotionally overwhelmed.

The celebration commenced with the ceremonial lighting of the lamp, a timeless ritual signifying the triumph of knowledge over ignorance and the dispelling of darkness by divine light. Ms. Neha Yadav, welcomed the distinguished gathering and eloquently elaborated on the profound significance of choosing Lord Krishna's divine journey as the central theme.

A moment of reverence followed as the Chief Guest, Honourable Chairman Shri B. L. Yadav Sir, was felicitated with a bouquet by the Directors and Principal Ma'am, amidst thunderous applause that reflected the institution's deep respect and gratitude.

What ensued was nothing short of magical! The stage metamorphosed into the sacred lands of Mathura, Gokul, Vrindavan, and Dwarka as students from every class breathed life into Krishna's immortal Leelas with astonishing maturity and artistry.

The journey began with the miraculous Divine Birth of Lord Krishna, followed by His tender arrival in Gokul and the affectionate embrace of Yashoda Maiya and Nanda Baba. The innocence and mischief of Baal Leela enchanted the audience, while the daring conquest of

The magnificent Govardhan Leela, complete with an exquisitely crafted Govardhan Parvat prop, saw young Krishna lifting the mountain—a visual spectacle that earned a standing ovation. The vibrant Manglam Maypole Dance infused pure joy, paving the way for the ethereal Raas Leela, where the divine love between Krishna and the Gopis was portrayed with sublime grace.

The narrative seamlessly transitioned to Mathura with the energetic Kit-Kit Dhundhu Dance, building anticipation for the climactic and dramatically charged Kans Vadh—a powerful portrayal of justice prevailing over tyranny.

The festivities continued in Dwarka with a spirited Garba, followed by the colourful splendor of Krishna and Rukmini's divine marriage presented through a lively Holi-themed dance. The grandeur reached its philosophical zenith with the poignant Arjun Act, a masterful rendition of the timeless dialogue between Krishna and Arjun on the battlefield of Kurukshetra, reminding everyone of duty, righteousness, and surrender to the Divine Will.

In his inspiring address, Chairman Shri B. L. Yadav Sir praised the stellar performances and reiterated that Lord Krishna remains an eternal embodiment of wisdom, love, courage, and moral strength. His words resonated deeply, tying together the artistic brilliance with profound spiritual insights.

Principal Ma'am, Ms. Madhu Chauhan, then took the stage to present the school's remarkable achievements of 2025 through a captivating audio-visual presentation. Interspersed with heartwarming behind-the-scenes glimpses of rehearsals, costume trials, and teamwork, the segment highlighted the months of tireless effort invested by students, teachers, and staff in bringing JALSA to life.

As the final curtains descended, JALSA concluded not merely as an annual function, but as a divine pilgrimage that touched every soul present. The prolonged standing ovation, teary-eyed parents, and glowing faces of the performers bore testimony to a celebration that transcended the stage and became a shared spiritual experience.

that transcended the stage and became a shared spiritual experience.

With the blessings of the Almighty, the unwavering support of parents, and the relentless dedication of the Tagore family, JALSA 2025 etched itself as a golden chapter in the school's legacy—a resplendent festival of devotion, talent, culture, and timeless values that will be cherished for years to come.

Jai Shri Krishna!
